

GALERIE THOMAS HENRY ROSS ART CONTEMPORAIN

presents the trilogy:

ALL WORK AND NO PLAY MAKES THOMAS A DULL BOY.

Curated by Jean-Michel Ross

For the first collaborative event of this newly founded pop-up exhibition platform, Galerie

Thomas Henry Ross art contemporain invites you to an exhibition in three parts under the title

ALL WORK AND NO PLAY MAKES THOMAS A DULL BOY.

The event will take place at three different venues:

ISCP (International Studio & Curatorial Program)
RU (Residency Unlimited)
Radiator Gallery

The curator and director of Galerie Thomas Henry Ross art contemporain would like to acknowledge the generous support of these three organizations that are hosting this event and Conseil des arts et des lettres du Québec which made the curatorial residency at ISCP possible.

1. Presentation by curator and director Jean-Michel Ross followed by a solo exhibition of Ève K. Tremblay (Montreal-New York-Berlin)

January 24th, 2012 at 18h30 (at ISCP)

With this first event curator and director Jean-Michel Ross will present Free Pass Magazine and Galerie Thomas Henry Ross art contemporain which he founded during his residency at ISCP. The South Korean artist Kakyoung Lee, a fellow ISCP resident, will also present her work. The presentations will be followed by a solo exhibition of Ève K. Tremblay's collage work. The artist will display her new work under the subtitle: Sorry it was a misunderstanding.

(press passes from Free Pass Magazine will be available after the presentation)

International Studio & Curatorial Program (ISCP)
1040 Metropolitan Avenue
Brooklyn, NY, 11211

3. Group Exhibition

January 28th to February 18th, 2012 (at Gallery Radiator)

Opening on January 28th, 2012 from 4pm to 8 pm

The third event will be a group show of artists that have contributed in defining the platform that is Galerie

Thomas Henry Ross art contemporain. After two and a half months of research in residence at ISCP, it is now time to work, play and display artworks that have had a impact on the creation of this pop-up gallery. Gallery

Radiator, a newly constituted space that defines itself as a radical mediator for the arts, has generously opened it's doors for the project by providing a physical space for the exhibition. This collaboration will be the first official show of this new actor on the New York scene situated about 2 mins from PS1 MOMA.

The third event will present the work of the following artists:

Itziar Barrio (Bilbao-New York)

Petros Chisostomou (London-New York)

Gabriela Galvan (Mexico-New York)

Sarah Greig (Montreal)

Milutin Gubash (Montreal)

Theresa Mastroiacovo (Montreal)

Ève K. Tremblay (Montreal-New York-Berlin)

Kim Waldron (Montreal)

(press passes from Free Pass Magazine will be available during the opening)
